

Report: Tree Plantation Programme

Date: 30.07.2022

The Tree Plantation programme was organized at Apollo College of Veterinary Medicine Jaipur, through National Service Scheme Unit on 30th July, 2022 at 10:00 AM. The program was inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Dharam Singh Meena, Dean College of Dairy and Food Technology, Bassi, Dr. C.S. Sharma, Dean ACVM and Mr. Dulhe Ram Meena working trustee, Apollo Animal Medical Group Trust, Jaipur and members of Brahma Kumari's organization Jaipur.

This year's plantation drive was organized as a part of celebration of India's 75th Azadi ka Amrit Mahostav.

Dr. C.S. Sharma, Dean of ACVM emphasizes the importance of tree plantation in the human society and pointed that plants of different variety is important for our Earth Ecosystem. Dean, all the Head of the Departments, faculty members, NSS Volunteers planted around 200 saplings of Mango, Guava, Sitafal, Jackfruit, Star Fruit, Lemon, Mosambi, Kathal, Amla, Falsa, Belpatra, Shahtoot, Ber, Anar, Cycas Palm, Ashoka etc. in the college premises. All the students of B.V.Sc. and A.H. actively participated in the programme at the end of programme there was a photo session with the Dean, faculty members and students.

